

Whippet Racing: Do It Now

Hell no, I'm not big enough to race yet.

But I will be one day.

I know where I'm going and I know what I'll be doing when I get there.

I'm a Whippet and all my buddies are Whippets. We've got a job to do and that job is to race.

You folks at home have got a job to do too.

It's up to folks like you to make sure I get as much training as possible. Your job is to learn what Whippets run like and to make sure that every Whippet you breed runs like a Whippet.

I'm a Whippet and your job is to let me live up to my heritage, my birthright.

I'm a Whippet and your job is to take me racing.

I'm ready ... are you?
